

Katherine Parron

Katherine Parron was born in Baltimore, Maryland. She is a graduate of the University of Mary Hardin-Baylor, Belton, Texas in 2001 with a Bachelor of Science degree in Sociology and Psychology. In 2002, she began her professional career in corrections as an Institutional Parole Officer for the Texas Department of Criminal Justice.

In 2004, Katherine began working for the Department of Public Safety & Correctional Services as a Parole and Probation Agent in Baltimore, Maryland. In 2013, she was promoted to a Domestic Violence Field Supervisor for the Prince George's County DV unit. In 2019, she then became a DV FAST Supervisor in Baltimore, Maryland. In 2022, she was promoted as the Manager of Domestic & Intimate Partner Violence for the Division of Parole & Probation.